

Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Authorization

HIPAA Privacy Issues

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Office for Civil Rights (OCR) enforces the HIPAA Privacy, Security, and Breach Notification Rules. Independence Blue Cross (Independence) is subject to HIPAA, as are most health care providers.

Find out more about your rights under HIPAA here.

A third-party app or website generally will not be subject to HIPAA, but a third-party app or website is required to comply with the terms of its own privacy notice or privacy policy.

To learn more about filing a complaint with OCR related to HIPAA requirements, click here.

You may also file a HIPAA complaint with Independence by contacting our Member Help Team at the number on the back of your member ID card.

Non-HIPAA Privacy Issues

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) protects against deceptive acts. For example, a third-party app or website discloses personal data in violation of its privacy notice or privacy policy.

If you believe an app or website inappropriately used, disclosed, or sold your information, contact the FTC. You may file a complaint with the FTC here.
