Present your AblePay card at your appointment

At the time of your doctor's appointment or medical service, present your AblePay card to the provider. Ask the provider to enter AblePay in the system as secondary payor. The claim is sent to Independence Blue Cross (or your health insurance company if you are not an Independence Blue Cross health plan member) for processing — and your provider will send your invoice electronically to AblePay.

For a list of providers who are currently accepting AblePay, visit ablepayhealth.com/participating-providers.

Choose your payment plan and make your payments

When you have a new invoice, you will receive notification by email or text to log in to the AblePay member portal and select your preferred payment option and term. Once notified, you will have five days to decide if you would like to change your default payment method and term. If no changes are made, AblePay will process the claim based on the default term and payment you chose during enrollment.

How much you save is determined by the payment method and payment plan you choose. You'll see the biggest savings when you pay your remaining financial responsibility in one payment using a bank account (checking, savings, or HSA[1]). You may also pay with a card (credit, debit, or HSA/FSA). All payment plan options feature 0% interest.

Payment plans	Savings[2] when paying with a bank ACH[3]	Savings when paying with a card
1 payment	13%	10%
3 payments	10%	7%
6 payments	8%	5%
12 payments	No savings, 0% interest	No savings, 0% interest

You can save up to 13% on copays, coinsurance, and deductibles

1 An HSA can be used as a bank method as long as you can provide both the account and routing numbers for the HSA.

2 Savings are determined by how quickly you pay AblePay. Present your card at all medical providers. A list of providers currently accepting AblePay can be found at ablepayhealth.com/participating-providers.

3 ACH payments are electronic payments that go through the Automated Clearing House (ACH) Network.

The products listed are offered by AblePay, an independent company. These are not Blue Cross or Blue Shield products. Independence Blue Cross is acting solely as an agent for AblePay. AblePay is solely responsible.
